If this is an kind of a lens flare, I just say its the most unique one I've ever seen. Do you have some background of this shot? What was seen when the picture was taken. Very unique.

Are you sure that all of this is supposedly a ghost manifesting? I mean, part of it on the white part of the door way looks plausibly like a ghost, most of it does, but some of it looks a little bit like a reflection.

there was a mirror near by but it was about 8 to 10 feet behind the investigators when they took the photo.

it is a unique pic but i couldn't explain it or even debunk it the investigators was taking pics of the place and they caught a couple good pics and that there wasn't anything that would cause a light glare.the place was very active that night.

i try to debunk it but i couldn't ,so it's got me puzzled and i do belive it is a ghost that was the first pic and the second you can see the spirit leaving it leaves a trail behind then the 3rd pic it's gone.
