There re alot of us on here that have a ability of some sort. Rather you do or not each of us has a spirit guide in life. I am just wondering if any of you have seen or know who your spirit guide is?

Mine is a woman she is dressed in clothes you mauy see in the time of Jesus when he was on earth. She has a cloth on her head and a long robe that covers all the way down to her feet. We will not always know who ou spirit guide is or if there are more than one but i ws wondering if you do?
